

After walking approximately 1100 kilometres on the Via del Plata - from Cordoba down to Seville and all the way up to Santiago de Compostela - I could not rest and continued on to Fisterra, across to Muxia and back to Santiago. This walk, at the end of such a journey, is very popular for many hardy pilgrims. For this reason I treat it as a separate book to my Via del Plata walk. It is a day by day account and has over 70 colour photos of the beautiful scenery and people I met. Whatever Camino undertaken to Santiago, the pilgrim can walk these few days to complete his or her quest if they feel the need to! The walker with only a few days in Spain can also walk it as a rewarding first Camino experience with wonderful scenery and a chance to meet real Pilgrims from around the world. In the near future, I am hoping to publish my Via del Plata experiences and stories of other Caminos I have walked.
