

*KINDLE UNLIMITED MEMBERS READ FOR FREE!*Considering her situation, Rosy has made a good life for herself. Despite being a big, beautiful, ebony woman living in the late-nineteenth century, Rosy has a farm, a roof over her head, and isn't bothered by the people in the town too often. When Rosy begins to feel that her life is a bit too comforting, she goes out in search of excitement. When she hears that controversial oil tycoon Riley Ashton is scheduled to speak in her town square, she decides to venture out to see his speech, only to realize Ashton is extremely attractive and charismatic, but of course he would never be interested in someone like her, or would he? In a striking bit of luck, she meets Ashton face-to-face, and to her surprise, he seems to take a liking to her. But is this business as usual for Ashton or is he truly falling for Rosy? Find out in this steamy historical romance. A fun, standalone romance with no cliffhanger.
