

As an assassin, Chris Powell has to always be on the lookout for people turning up unexpected looking for payback. To avoid this from happening, he has to lead a double life and always using an alias whenever he's working. However, he soon discovers that the answers to the latest threat lie not in England but thousands of miles away behind a well equipped army that has no compunction about killing him nor anyone else. But ahead of him lies only, death and heartache!
