

Duty, bravery, faith; these are the principles each Scout pledges as their commitment to the values of Scouting. They are a blueprint for strengthening physical, mental and spiritual character to guide every Scouts actions in helping others in need at all times. Strength for Service to God and Community inspires Scouts of all ages to quickly respond to any situation with reason, courage and compassion. It is an ideal resource for training and many related Merit Badges from First Aid and Lifesaving to Public Health and Safety. Strength for Service to God and Community is especially suited to those Scouts and leaders working as first responders or those wishing to pursue careers in emergency services. Praise for Strength for Service to God and Community: • For more than 100 years, Scouts have said the words Duty, Honor, and God as part of the Scout Oath. These words come to life in the millions of extraordinary achievements and good deeds current and former Scouts do each day. • --Wayne Brock, Past Chief Scout Executive, Boy Scouts of America, Irving, Texas
