

No Matter How Tough Things Get...You Can Bounce Back Michael did! He tested the limits, took chances, acted crazy - and discovered he was enslaved by drugs and the need to impress people. Then, one day, he found himself curled up like a baby on the kitchen floor, his body shaking. God joined me there on the floor, Michael says. Nancy did! She was entangled by fear. One night, after watching a late TV program, she heard them - the monsters in the furnace room - clawing their way to the rec room to get her. She could feel them nipping at her heels as she ran up the stairs - only to come face to face with a dark form in the hallway. But Nancy learned how to snatch the power away from fear and give it to God. Lynn did! She was looking for a plan that would ensure peace and fulfillment. Looking in all the wrong places only caused severe depression. Suicide seemed to be the only alternative - except that she didnt want to die if she could be happy. After years of suicidal depression, God dramatically transformed her life. Joey did! He and Mom lived in Idaho, his dad in Arizona. A summer with him proved disappointing. His dad finally kicked him out. Then the devil moved right in and sent some people to Joey who promised to show him happiness. Finally, kidnapped to a Christian youth retreat, Joey changed the direcion of his life. Casey did! Troubled by a broken home, Casey was heading down a rebellious road. After several brushes with death and the law - being arrested probably saved my life, he says - Casey has had two years of college and has dragged himself out of the bondage of drugs and unforgiveness, thanks to his mothers prayers.
