

A World War II veteran and lifetime peace advocate provides the most comprehensive and up-to-date volume of quotations, articles and reports available regarding mankind's long and unsuccessful search for world peace, the horror and tragedy of continuing wars, and the awesome threat of mass destruction that endangers all of mankind. These commentaries and reports of leaders, authors and the media not only reveal the turmoil of today's world, but also the growing public demand for effective world government, the mandatory enforcement of international law for world peace, the worldwide extinction of terrorism, the victory of democracy over fanatic religious fundamentalism, and the elimination of nuclear, chemical and biological weapons of mass destruction. The Final Word is that the nations of the world must now establish and enforce law and order or perish in a nuclear holocaust.
